

HERITAGE CONSERVATION AWARD

| | |
|---|--|
| 2005 Grosvenor Restaurant | The Restaurant has maintained the unique character and atmosphere of the original railway station and is a well known landmark. |
| 2006 Jack Shilling | For actively promoting the heritage and history of our community, more specifically in the recording of the community's significant events over the past 20 years through video recording. Dozens of tapes have been donated to, and are available to the public, at the Southampton Library, the Bruce County Museum and the Cultural Centre |
| 2007 Winner Audrey Underwood | Audrey Underwood is a long-time resident of Saugeen Township. Her participation in the development and continuing success of the Bruce County Genealogical Society is voluntary. Audrey's knowledge of families and farms is unlimited. Her collection of local history, memorabilia, genealogical magazines and journals is willingly shared with all who are interested in history. |
| 2008 Winner The Southampton Art School | The Committee, under the direction of the Project Manager Brian Cleaver, has extended the life of a significant heritage building in the Town of Saugeen Shores, the Southampton Art School. The project was completed in May of 2008, with in excess of 1,000 hours of volunteer work. |
| 2009 Winner Dunblane Church Committee | The original log church as was built on the Scott farm, Lot 26, Concession 7, Saugeen Township in 1859 by the people of the neighbourhood. Since the closing of the Church for regular service in 1968, there has been a Committee that maintains and repairs the Church and property, and arranges for an anniversary service to be held each year on the first Sunday in August. |
| 2010 Winner Matt and Tim Weichel | Matt and Tim Weichel do go above and beyond requirements and have a passion for saving older buildings within our Community. Their workmanship compliments the original architecture and seamlessly ties in the older portions. They have also developed a new subdivision, "Summerhill Road", made up of houses that reflect "Turn of Century Ontario Architecture". |
| 2011 Winner Jack and Marion McDermid | Jack and Marion and their family have recaptured the original magnificence of their attractive farm home built in 1899 and restored / renovated it completely during the last seventeen years. |
| 2012 Winner Walter Mackowski | Walter Mackowski is a long-time resident of Southampton. He and his wife are the proprietors of Vincent's Jeweler's. His dedication in tending to the Tower Clock in the Southampton Town Hall has been over 30+ years. He ensures the clock is on time and chimes on the hour from 9:00 am to 9:00 pm. |
| 2013 Winner Saugeen Rail Trail | The Saugeen Rail Trail Association is a group of volunteers dedicated to the preservation, maintenance and enhancement of the abandoned CN rail line, which in itself is rich in history. They have also preserved heritage by creating a viewing platform at the Hurricane Hazel crash site in Southampton, and constructing a mock train station in Port Elgin. |
| 2014 Winner St. Paul's Anglican Church | The St. Paul's Anglican Church was selected in recognition of the history of the Church and the recent addition enhancing the heritage features of the building and ensuring continued accessibility for many years. |
| 2015 Winner Ken Cassavoy | The finding of a ship's wooden ribs on the Southampton beach in the spring of 2001 was the start of an incredible archeological project that showed Ken's commitment and leadership. Ken assembled his team and commenced to plot the vessel's exact location and begin the removal of sand that had covered the boat since it had foundered on the beach (later determined to be in 1816). |
| 2016 Winner Jeanette Steeves | The award this year is being presented to Jeanette Steeves who has been actively promoting the rich cultural heritage of our community in the form of music. Choral music is one of the original forms of music and was widely spread in many traditional cultures. Due to modern times and technology, choirs today are becoming less popular and therefore stresses the importance of the work that Jeanette does to preserve cultural, traditional music in Saugeen Shores. |